Cement Sewer Pipe.

OSHKOSH, Cet 29, 1884 — For the information of these who are misled concerning Cement Saver pipe, I wish to state that such sewor pape Is being very extensively manufactured and used in the State of Wisconsin, and is preferred to vitrified. First, for its great strength and durability, it being from one-third to one half stronger, and less liable to crush in the ditch. Being solidly, it being from one-third to one half stronger, and less liable to crush in the ditch. Being solidly packed, in making, between iron monids, it becomes imperious to water or acids, and, if one of these pipes, such as made in Wisconsin, is cemented tight at one end and filled with water, the water will say there until it evaporates, which shows that it does not filter through. The older this pipe gets, the harder and more rocklike it becomes. Second, this pipe is preferred to all others on account of its shape. The larger sizes are ggs shape, contracting the flow in a narrow channel at the bottom, increasing its velocity, keeping halso has a flat base, which makes it lay firm in the diche, keeping it in shape, while a round pipe is more liable to roll and get out of shape, either in the filling or settling of the ditch. Cement pipe has been used for sewers in Engtand and various parts of the old world for over one hundred years, and lass proved indestructible, either by the action of sewage or time, and is still very extensively used in London and various other European-dites. Brooklyn, NY, has over fifty miles of coment pipe sweets, laid from twenty to forty years ago, and still giving perfect satisfaction. Query Why is coment used in brick sewers, and plaintered all over the interior surface? Simply because sewige will not go through it to be filtered through the purous brick.

Yours respectfully,

C. B. HEWITT.

There was a large audience in attendance upon the closing temperance meeting of the Doutneys, at the Orono Town Hall, Sunday evening. The exercises lasted two and one-half hours and were quite interesting. Rev. Messrs. Hooper, Wathen and Robinson were present and made interesting remarks, as did Hon. Charles Sunday night, John, a twelve years old son of Edward Kelley, of Lewiston, while sitting on the railing of the canal, lost his balance and fell into the canal. Life was extinct when his body was secured.

An Auburn place of business has, of late, been missing odd sums of cash. The last theft amounted to about $20. Officer Leonard was put on the track. By an excellent bit of detective work, he traced the person down and found it to be an Auburn young man of hitherto excellent habits and reputation. He was cornered, Friday, and finally confessed and was told to go home and tell his father and repent and be a good boy henceforth. His father settled the bill. The thefts were made in the night and by means of duplicate keys, the young man having once had the keys to the place rightfully in his possession for a long time. He is repentant now and, he says, forever.

RAILING IN FARMINGDALE.

The track of the Maine Central railroad for two miles above Gardiner has become notorious for attempts to derail passing trams by placing obstructions, usually sleepers, upon the rails. That no dusaster has ever occurred is a wonder and the railroad company has been able to avert aecidents only by exercising the utmost vigilance. Mr. Barry called on Mr. Botsford, of the packers' committee, to-day, and asked whether it was true that the resolutions had been passed insisting that the striking Knights of Labor should renounce their order as a condition precedent to being reemployed Mr. Botsford replied that such was the case. Mr. Barry said very little else and left. A majority of the strikers seem to rejoice over the resolutions against the Knights of Labor that have been adopted by the packers. "I think we were wrong when this last strike was ordered," said one of the leaders to a reporter, to-day. at the yards. About 100 carpenters quit work at Swift's to-day. A short time ago the firm gave them an advance of twenty-five cents a day and nine hours work. They stopped to-day, however and joined the ranks of those fighting for eight hours. The following notice was issued to-day by the Knights of Labor: "Notice. Butchers, mechanics and laborers are warned to large away from the stockwards as the men ers, mechanics and laborers are warned to keep away from the stockyards as the men are on a strike. By order of Committee." The master workmen of the Butchers' assembly, Sylvester Gaunt, has resigned his office because of his inability to satisfy the men and because he is thoroughly sat-isfied with the actions of Barry, Butler and Marshall.

Several members of the assembly agree with the Master Workman and the assembly seems to be in a fair way to be entirely dissolved. Firing Occurred Near the Packing House

LIFE IN LONDON.

The Lord Mayor's Day

Made the Occasion for a Socialist Demonstration.

No Serious Disorders Take Place.

LONDON, Nov. 9. Lord Mayor's Day opened gloomy and dark. There are few signs in the city to indicate that this is the day for the Lord Mayor's show. The display of bunting and decoration of buildings usually made on this occasion is almost generally omitted. This condition is due to anxiety for the result of the gathering of Socialists to-day. The police have made all possible arrangements for resisting any attempts at disorder. At an early hour shoals of roughs began to emerge from the slums and make their way toward the sections where the Socialists had arranged to assemble. The battalions of police marching to different points received debate among the auditors themselves.

A Nolsy and Excited Crowd.

In this way the vast crowd divided up into numberless excited groups each stirred up by its own spokesman and all independently noisy and excited.

The police did not attempt to interfere with the rush of the mob into the square, but formed a strong cordon around it. Among the speakers who addressed the groups was Williams, the Socialist leader. He spoke from the foot of the Nelson fijonument. He declared that the populace would show that they could hold an orderly meeting to let the public know the amount of distress which at present existed among the working men of England.

Another speaker said: All the power of the country was invoked to prevent us from assembling in Trafalgar Square. Our reply to all this is that we are here. I do not desire to use rash language but I menn all I say. We want food, work and dwelling places for all and will have them. The Socialists pledged the unemployed of London that they would make a demonstration to-day to contrast before the world the extreme poverty of London's unemployed with the extreme wealth and plenty of the city's upper classes, and the Socialists have kept their word. We have given this answer to Sir Charles Wanten. Resolutions of a proper kind will be adopted and they will be sent to the Marquis of Salisbury and to Lord Randotph Churchill and they will be compelled to listen to them. A Socialist's Speech.

The Socialists Will Continue their Work The Socialists Will Continue their Work until every vestige of tyranny is swept away. Our organization is the only one which dares to take a proper position in behalf of the poor and oppressed. We are not here to break the peace. We are here to agitate in a peaceful manner for work, for all and over work for none. Resolutions asking the government to provide work for the unemployed and to reduce to eight the number of hours constituting a 'day's work were carried, amid loud observing, and the group which adopted them and which had by this time absorbed nearly all the multitude remaining in the nearly all the multitude remaining in the square dispersed cheering for the promised social revolution.

Most of the people who had composed the audience at once went away. Others loitered about and joined the vertous throngs attracted to the seen. A number of anti-Socialists attempted to hold a counter demonstration in Trafalgar of anti-Socialists attempted to hold a counter demonstration in Trafalgar Square. They were attacked and roughly handled by their opponents and driven from the acene. The police and Life Guards interfered and cleared the Square. The work was not difficult and but one tarrest was made. A section of the crowd went from Trafalgar Square to the residence of the Marquis of Salisbury and attempted to make a demonstration there. They were, however, dispersed easily by the police. For a long time after the close of the proceedings in Trafalgar Square large crowds of men sauntered through the streets. Several ugly rushes occurred the streets. Several ugly rushes occurred between them and the police, but, nothing of a serious nature happened and but little locting was done. The mounted police were everywhere hooted and groaned at by the moving mob.

in the preservation of native song-birds, . Ld who approve the crusade against the fashionable bird-hat, may be interested in knowing that the last Legisl iture passed a lan designed to prevent the wholesale shaughter of native birds, other than game bilds, for millinery purposes It might be added that fashionable women, who are fo lowing the fint sent from Paus, that the bird hat shall not fall into "innocuous desnetude," might be equally interested in this law and the consequences of its en-

The large number of women in this city The large number of women in this city alone, who went the bird-hat, easily proves that the existence of this law is not known But the law was passed last May, and it embraces "uniy wild bird, other than a game bird," and provides that no person shall "purchase or have in possession, or expose for sale any such song on wild bird, or any part thereof, after the same hirs been killed. Any person violating this provision of the act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in the county jail or penitentiary, of not less than $10 or more than $50, or both at the disci etion of the court. Moreover, one-half of the recovery shall belong to the plaintiff."

to the plaintift."

This is practically offering a reward of from 85 to 825 for each successful complaint of a violation of the act, and the large number of bird-hats one may see any day in a fashionable street, in this city, shows how large a fortune any tramp might gather in it the law could be enforced. Except in Buffalo, however, no attempt has been made to carry the law into effect.

A Tribune reporter called recently on a member of the Audubon Society, who told him that it was his impression that the houses for the supply of feathers in this aity, were trying to create the impression that bird-hats were becoming fashionable

"They found their large stock rendered useless inst year," he explained, "when the wave of indignation arose, and now that it has subsided they are trying to push their stock off. The law in question was passed through the efforts of the American Ornithologist Union. I don't think that all the milliners of this city are aware of this law. The Audubon Society was incorporated seven months ago for the protection of birds, but we propose to resort to moral suasion."

to moral suasion."

The reporter called on several fashionable milliners. One of them said: "If women want these bird-hats, we have to furnish them. We are the public servants and that is the situation in a nutshell."

"Have you heardfof a law against selling hirds for millinery purposes?"

Are constantly exposed to danger from Are constantly exposed to danger from Colds, Whooping Cough, Croup, and diseases peculiar to the throat and lungs. For such allments, Ayer's Cherry Fectoral, promptly administered, affords speedy rehef and cure.

As a remedy for Whooping Cough, with which many of our children were afficited, we used, during the past winter, with much satisfaction, Ayer's Cherry Fectoral. For this affection, we consider this preparation the most efficacious of all the medicines which have come to our knowledge—fray Parkhurst, Preceptress, Home for Little Wanderers, Doncaster, Md.

Wanderers, Donesser, Md.

My children have been peculiarly subject to attacks of Croup, and I failed to find any effective remedy until I commenced administering Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. This preparation relieves the difficulty of breathing and invariably cures the complaint.—David G. Starks, Chatham, Columbia Co., N. Y.

Chatham, Columbia Co., N. Y.

I have used Ayer's 'Cherry Pectoral in my family for many years, and have found it especially valuable in Whooping Cough. This medicine allays all irritation, prevents inflammation from extending to the lungs, and quickly subdues any tendency to Lung Complaint.

—J. B. Wellington, Planville, Mich. I find no medicine so effective, for Croup and Whooping Cough, as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It saved the life of my little boy, only six months old, carrying him safely through the worst case of Whooping Cough I ever saw.—Jane Malone, Piney Flats, Tenn.
